1) Under the existing rules the emoluments drawn by an officer in a tenure appointment do not count for pension.

2) Similar question has arisen in case of Sri S. G. Narasimhaiah, Asst. Secy to Govt, Labour Dept (on a tenure basis). The following files have been put up for reference:
with the above file: (i) c.B. 9247-1

Dated 20th Nov. 1950.

To

The Chief Secretary to Government of Mysore,
B a n g a l o r e.

Sir,

I beg to submit that I held the appointment of an Assistant Secretary to Government on a tenure basis from 1st January 1949. I understand that under the existing rules the emoluments drawn in a tenure appointment do not count towards pension except under the special orders of Government. I understand that there are precedents for the grant of this concession in special cases. I therefore respectfully beg to request that in consideration of my hard and faithful service over a period of 34 years and of the fact that I held the tenure post for nearly two years, the concession of counting the emoluments of the tenure post for pension may be kindly extended to me, for which act of kindness I shall feel most grateful.

Yours faithfully,

P. S. K. Naidu

Asst. Secretary to Govt.
(Retired).

DRAFT COUNCIL NOTE.

SUBJECT: PROPOSAL TO CONFIRM SRI S.G. NARASIMHAIA AND SRI P.S.K. NAIDU, ASSISTANT SECRETARIES TO GOVERNMENT IN THE TENURE APPOINTMENTS HELD BY THEM.

Sri S.G. Narasimhaiya was appointed as Assistant Secretary to Government, Labour Branch (on a tenure basis) with effect from 6th January 1949 and is continuing in that post from that date.

2) Sri P.S.K. Naidu was appointed as Assistant Secretary to Government, Dewan's Office (on a tenure basis) with effect from 1st January 1949. The officer has since been retired from service.

3) Sri S.G. Narasimhaiya and Sri P.S.K. Naidu have represented that they may be confirmed against the tenure posts held by them. Under the existing rules of Mysore Service Regulations, these officers cannot be confirmed against the tenure appointments. If they are not confirmed in their appointments, the emoluments drawn by them as Assistant Secretaries to Government will not count towards their pension.

4) The Accountant-General who was consulted re: the confirmation of an officer against a tenure appointment has stated as follows:-

"I wish to state that there is no provision in the Mysore Service Regulations regarding confirmation in a tenure appointment. Emoluments drawn in tenure appointments are being taken for purposes of pension under individual orders of Government. But, according to paras 14 (a) and (c) of the Fundamental Rules (3rd Edition 1949 Print) there is no objection to the confirmation of an officer in a tenure post. The emoluments drawn in a tenure appointment can count for pension provided the officer is appointed substantially to that post.

5) It is desirable to incorporate a similar provision in Mysore Service Regulations also."
